

e copy the following from yesterday's Times, shewing that the north has de-

Southern slave and paralyzing South-Trade. Possibly however the South-Trade may be able to make its own paper, and may assist in establishing a lucrative class of home manufacture which might very profitably prosecuted in the South.

THE LIGHT GOING OUT.—The law of coal and threatens to work one piece of just not wholly unpoetical. It is said that exportation of paper to the seceding States has, under order of Government, been entirely stopped! Not a ream, as we are lately informed, is now permitted to cross Ohio. As it is well known that the greater part of the paper consumed in the South hitherto has been of Northern manufacture, it is easy to see what the result must be. There are, indeed, a few paper mills in the seceding States; but these, for the want of necessary materials, are on the are indispensable for the bleaching process, as soda-ash and sulphuric acid, are locally produced in the North and in Europe, and the same is true of wire gauze and felt, all of which are absolute necessities. There, in, indeed, are one article requisite in paper manufacture, which they are likely soon to have in quite unwelcome abundance.

In looking forward to this impending mortality of the journals of Secessiondom, there is no need to put on any unnecessary mourning. As their psychological studies—as exhibitions of what grammar, rhetoric and logic may become under certain conditions—they were indeed not without a value. But the vile, poisonous staff they have been diffusing, would probably have made it necessary ere long for the Government to repress them as a mere sanitary measure.

The condition of the new Southern Capital hotels and the corners of streets are apparatuses whose suspicious and ragabood appear as surprises in hideousness the worst reached by old St. Giles in London or of the Five Points in New-York. As I pass along the gangs of miscreants I here frequently find foul imprecations, and it is only by supremely ignoring their menacing utterances that I have hitherto escaped danger, though on occasions I have only been able to throw handful of desperate drunken ruffians giving them money and cigars.

The masses are in the dark about the movements of the North, while those officials who get the newspapers fancy the news of the movement of troops is exaggerated or manufactured. The number of those who flee from the city has averaged about one hundred a week for some time past, and the aristocratic quarter prewelthies families find it safer in the country than in the city. Among the free colored people here I notice an impudence and sauciness, which will increase in the proportion that the rebellion advances. How can the African respect the Virgin when the Virginian perogative makes him a fool of himself! The reaction upon the African population must become gradually very terrible; for the free colored people keep their enslaved brethren fully informed, and while the stupid Southern hanger-on white man who tamps with his slave has not even wit enough to prevent, the slave is to be prepared for freedom, not by the white man—but by those of our race who have tasted the sweet freedom.

Though I solemnly reiterate and confirm all I have said about the intrinsic value of the political, moral, and general

—that despises for God's sake reme-
—that despises for God's sake reme-South is in despair. I endeavor to the truth, not to overrate the resour-
the South, but also not to understate
of diabolical inspiration which it d-
from its wickedness and despair.

☆ The New Orleans True Del-
this significant item:—

Scarcely a day passes that dispatches a received announcing the capture of slaves success which has rewarded the active Well known to all, the expectation of a will give surprise seem to fall into the of the power of fascination. The triresents make a circuit, and immediately price presents itself as if by process of nation.

☆ Washington, June 10

It is reported that Jeff Davis has

Private advice says that Jeff Davis is alarmed, and his anxiety is so great as to affect his health.

The next attack on Acquia Creek will be made by the land forces.

Owago, June 1.

A free yesterday afternoon nearly desolated the Owago Cotton Mills. Loss estimated at $30,000 on building, machinery, and stock.

There is the following insurance—Western, of Owago, $7,000; of New York, $10,000; Phoenix, of New York, $5,000; Western, of Phoenix, of Hartford, $5,000; Western, of Phoenix, of Providence, $5,000; Atlantic, of Hartford, $5,000.

The Memphis Herald announces the arrival of Gen. Beauregard there on the 20th, in command of the Western division of the rebel army.

—An article in our London Times says that Jeff Davis means to have Davis, who is making a staid display of moderation and self-restraint, to be good will of Europe.

tion, is proposed for acceptance on the floor of his citizens. The tribunal which decides quesof international law is always a stern
the North prevails it will prove that the
was a nationality, if the North make good dependence, it will prove that the Union partnership during pleasure. This is to be decided and we must wait the event.
Times thinks great movements will be pro-
Bill Fall.

The army-worm is approaching ville in vast numbers, threatening to all cereals in that vicinity.

10

10

100

10

10

10

10

10

100

